07.3 REPORT from CITY COUNCILLOR

Neil Baxter reported on a meeting he and PF had with Patrick Aust, City Engineer. There is a possibility that Avington Sewage can be piped into either Itchen Abbas or Easton.

Neil has spoken to Kevin Cloud about the trees belonging to the Trout Farm along the B3047. JAE to formally write to the manager as no response has been made from her 'phone call.

The charity motocross event at Matterley Bowl will go ahead before the enforcement is made.

07.4 MATTERS ARISING

ACTION

a) B3047 Footpath - Ongoing

b) Play Equipment

EL submitted plans for Old School Field equipment. This was agreed by the council. JAE to apply for the Open Space Grant. It was agreed to spend a similar amount on KGV.

JAE

c) Shepherds Field - The lighting has now been turned off.

d) Easton Village 30

The meeting with residents was not well attended. The majority voted in favour. The next step is a speed check.

A letter from a resident commenting on the danger at the Cricketer's corner is being dealt with by Jackie Porter. There are valid points in his concerns. SG will respond to the letter.
